The child landed in a seated position on the floor. In addition, a staff member hired on 07/29/19, forcefully picked up a toddler to remove from a seated position to be carried out of the room. The center's written policy for staff members stated, "Physical discipline will not be tolerated, including squeezing arms, hands or shoulders; sitting them down hard; picking them up fast or hard; covering a child's mouth with your hand; any type of hitting, slapping, shaking, or jerking.
