Findings:

3

General: Based on Observation and interview, the child care center did not comply with regulatory programming requirements. Observation of Room 111 during nap time revealed two children were seated in chairs (one chair facing in the direction of the restroom in the room and a second chair next to a desk) while the remaining twelve children in the room were laying down for nap. Interview with the two staff members present revealed when the group of children was returning to the room after lunch the two children in question had been caught yelling/screaming while walking back to the room. Further interview with the staff members revealed the two children had been placed in quiet time for yelling/screaming in the hall before taking their nap.
