Findings:

Based on interview it was found that a two-year-old child climbed a chain-link fence on the playground and fell onto an asphalt patch on the other side. The child hit hi head on the asphalt but medical attention was not obtained. The staff person on the playground at the time of the incident stated that she was talking to a parent at the time of the incident. It was stated that she saw the child as he reached the top of the fence and she ran to get him down. She did not make it to the child in time to keep the child from falling to the other side.
