Findings:
General: Based on interview, the child care center director failed to assure compliance with regulatory requirements. An unrelated adult (parent to another child in the center) confronted a ten-year-old child regarding his treatment of her six-year-old child. This interaction was found to be inappropriate as this adult was not to be in a supervisory role in the classroom. The classroom staff member failed to prevent the parent from interacting with the ten-year-old child or ask the parent to leave the classroom.
